

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The cable ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

Rather than abolishing the limits of media ownership, you should lower those limits.

Your proposal will only strangle democracy further. Is that what you intend? If so, be honest and say so.

Releasing more "air" for community non-profits will expand and strengthen democracy and go a long way to healing the malaise and apathy rampant in our once (in my own lifetime) relatively free country.
